Re: Echevarria v. Mayfield, et. al.
C. A. No. 05-284-GMS

Dear Roger:

This will confirm our telephone conversation on March 21, 2007. In short, you were kind enough to agree to provide me with a complete copy of your client's Nationwide policy that was in effect on the date of the accident. You denied my request, however, to provide me with a copy of the release/settlement agreement between your client and Nationwide. You stated that the agreement has not yet been completed, but that you cannot voluntarily provide the agreement in any event because it will contain a confidentiality provision.

Notwithstanding the confidentiality agreement, it is my client's position that he is entitled to a copy of the agreement because he is entitled to a set off against the judgment that is ultimately entered against him for the amount paid by Nationwide. Accordingly, I reiterate my request that you provide me with a copy of that release/settlement agreement.

Sincerely,

Robert K. Pearce
